ARROWROCK STATE HISTORIC SITE

TYPE OF CAMP: State Historic Site

DIRECTIONS TO CAMP: 13 miles North of I-70 on Highway 41 in Saline County

POINTS OF INTEREST: The spirit of Missouri’s frontier years lingers in this quiet, historic village. The white-frame and red-brick buildings and the canopied boardwalk appear today much as they did years ago, when wagons heading west on the Santa Fe Trail were a common site. Historic buildings in Arrow Rock include the Old Tavern, a one-room jail, the old courthouse, the home of artist George Caleb Bingham and the old tavern where visitors can dine in an 1800’s atmosphere. The Arrow Rock Lyceum is a noted summer theater that provides entertainment for visitors to the historic site. A campground is available. The services described are handicap accessible.

TRAIL REPORT:

TIME REQUIRED FOR RESERVATIONS: Not specified

WHO TO CONTACT FOR INFORMATION: Arrow Rock State Historic Site in Arrow Rock, MO 65320, Phone (660) 837-3330

BABLER MEMORIAL PARK

TYPE OF CAMP: State Park

DIRECTIONS TO CAMP: 20 miles west of downtown St. Louis on Highway 109, between US 40 and Highway 100

POINTS OF INTEREST: Babler’s location on the fringe of a metropolitan area creates a park enjoyed by many urban dwellers and provides a peaceful contrast for tourists visiting the St. Louis area. The richly wooded 2,439-acre park is complete with campgrounds, a swimming pool, horseback riding rentals and trails, a tennis court, and an interpretive nature center with a naturalist on duty year-round. Southwoods hollow natural area also is in the park. The Babler outdoor education center for special populations is located in this park and is designed to accommodate campers with special needs. A year-round naturalist is available.

TRAIL REPORT: Bicycle, Equestrian, Hiking, Interpretive

TIME REQUIRED FOR RESERVATIONS: 2 weeks

WHO TO CONTACT FOR INFORMATION: Edmund A Babler Memorial Park, Rt.1, Box 468, Chesterfield, MO 63017, Phone (314) 458-3813
BAKER STATE PARK

TYPE OF CAMP: State Park

DIRECTIONS TO CAMP: 3 miles north of Patterson on Highway 143 in Wayne County

POINTS OF INTEREST: Dating back to the 1920's, Sam A. Baker State Park encompasses 5,168 acres of scenic St. Francois mountain terrain. One of the main features is the expansive, unspoiled wilderness surrounding Mudlick Mountain. Big Creek and the St. Francois River, which borders the park, attract many fishermen and canoeist. With an interpretive nature center, campsites, cabins, a rustic dining lodge, and a clear stream for summer splashing, the park is ideal for a vacation, a campground also is available for horseback riders. Year-round naturalist available.
