All Merit Badge Counselors must be registered members of the Boy Scouts of America. Even if you are already registered in another position, you must still complete a BSA Adult Application (#524-501) form with the Position Code "42" (no charge). Note: Effective April 1, 2003, the Social Security Number on all adults is required by the National Boy Scouts of America. Effective June 1, 2010, all adults are required to provide proof of Youth Protection Training with their applications.

To qualify as a merit badge counselor you must:

1. Be at least 18 years old.
2. Be proficient in the merit badge subject by vocation or avocation.
3. Be able to work with Scout-age youth.
4. Be registered as a Merit Badge Counselor with the Boy Scouts of America. (Submit Adult BSA Application with your Merit Badge Counselor Application.)
5. Attend Youth Protection Training – Please attach a copy of your card.

I received Youth Protection Training on: Date _____

The Scouts BSA Handbook instructs the Scouts to meet with you, before they start to establish a mutual understanding of the requirements and their commitment to complete those requirements.

By signing the back of this form, you agree to the following standards:

As a Merit Badge Counselor, I will:

1. Examine the latest revision of the Scouts BSA Merit Badge pamphlet of each Merit Badge I select on the reverse side of this form.
2. Require the Scout to complete all and only all of the requirements.
3. Counsel the Scout to:
 - a. Keep their appointment.
 - b. Be in uniform.
 - c. Bring a legible filled out Merit Badge Card signed in ink by his unit leader or designee.
 - d. In keeping with BSA Youth Protection Guidelines, have multiple Scouts/Adults at every counseling session.
4. Notify the District Advancement Chairman if I can't serve as a Merit Badge Counselor any longer this year.
5. Renew my Merit Badge Counselor application every year. If I let my membership lapse I will complete a new BSA Adult Application for Merit Badge Counseling.

MERIT BADGE SUBJECTS

The National Council places no limit on the number of merit badges an individual may be approved to counsel, except to the extent a person lacks skills and education in a given subject. The intent is for Scouts to learn from those with an appropriate level of expertise. ✓ Check the Merit Badges that you wish to counsel.
