

Three Trails District
Committee Member/COR of the Year Award
2026 - Nomination Form

The Committee Member/Chartered Organization Representative of the Year Award recognizes an exceptional volunteer who has demonstrated outstanding dedication, leadership, and service in support of a Scouting unit's committee and its associated programs. The nominee consistently strengthens the foundation of their unit by ensuring that the program runs smoothly, sustainably, in alignment with Scouting values, and maintains a mutually beneficial relationship with the Chartered Organization.

The recipient exemplifies what it means to serve by providing steady guidance in areas such as unit administration, finance, membership growth, training support, advancement, and charter renewal. The ideal honoree is someone who actively collaborates with fellow committee members, supports unit leaders, and helps create an environment where youth members can thrive. Through their commitment, they help ensure that the unit remains organized, financially sound, and focused on delivering a high-quality Scouting experience.

This award celebrates the volunteer who consistently makes a lasting impact by strengthening their unit, supporting its leaders, and ensuring that the Scouting program remains strong for every youth it serves within the Three Trails District of the Heart of America Council.
