

Three Trails District
District Scouter of the Year Award
2026 Nomination Form

The District Scouter of the Year Award recognizes an outstanding district-level volunteer who demonstrates exceptional leadership, dedication, and service to the youth and Scouting units in the Three Trails District. This award honors a Scouter whose efforts have significantly strengthened the district through program support, volunteer development, membership growth, training, advancement, camping promotion, commissioner service, or other district-level initiatives.

Nominees for this award exemplify the values and ideals of Scouting through their commitment to serving others, fostering collaboration among volunteers, and supporting the success of units throughout the district by contributing their time, talents, and leadership to improve the quality of Scouting for youth and adult volunteers.

The District Scouter of the Year serves as a model of servant leadership, demonstrating integrity, dedication, and a passion for helping young people achieve their full potential. This recognition celebrates a volunteer whose contributions have made a lasting and meaningful impact on the Three Trails District and whose service reflects the highest traditions of Scouting.
