Theodore Naish Scout Reservation
May 6-8, 2022 | Friday Check-in Starts at 5:30 pm
Class starts promptly at 7:00 pm on Friday. Check-out is at noon on Sunday.

This course is ideal for scouts and scouters looking to develop and expand their knowledge of Outdoor Ethic skills. After this 16-hour weekend course, you will have a better understanding of the skills needed for friendlier, low impact outdoor recreation. You will also have tips for taking it back to your units to help with advancement requirements.

This training is highly recommended for youth scouts that would like to hold the Outdoor Ethics Guide position in their unit.

Cost with food and course materials will be $65.00 per participant.
Course is open to all scouts and scouters 14 years and older.
The spring course will consist of 2 overnights, class work, and outdoor experiences.
Informational packets to follow once enrolled.
